Seeing through the South China Sea issue

Business CHIC

By Johnny Litton

A quarter of the world's commerce pass through the waters of the South China Sea, thus a wider interest in preserving the freedom of navigation and use of these waters is of utmost importance. To initiate a dialogue among the concerned parties, the Carlos P. Romulo (CPR) Foundation for Peace and Development in collaboration with the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies of Singapore organized the "Forum on South China Sea" at the Manila Polo Club. CPR foundation chairman, ambassador Roberto Romulo said the forum was categorized as a "Track II" conference, meaning speakers did not speak as the official voice of government. The two-day event ended with an open plenary session with an audience of 150. Keynote speakers were former ambassadors Frank Wisner (US), Chen Jian (China) and Hasjim Djalal (Indonesia). Our congratulations to former secretary of the Department of Foreign Affairs, Roberto "Bobby" Romulo!

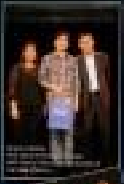
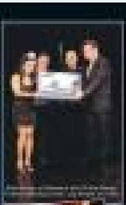
A Night of Celebration for Globe's Number One Customers

(The Globe Business Annual Appreciation Night)





For Globe Telecom, there's a time to work... and a time to party! This is exactly what happened on December 7, 2011 at the Makati Shangri-La Hotel for the Annual Appreciation Night. Globe executives and customers got together to forget about work-related stuff and just enjoy a night filled with delicious food, drinks and great company.

The event was hosted by [illegible] who certainly raised the energy of the crowd as the night went on. There were also amazing performances by [illegible] made the night even more exciting.

The event was graced by the presence of Globe Telecom's Chairman of the Board Jaime Augusto Zobel de Ayala and its President and CEO Ernest L. Cu with Senior Executives [illegible] and Globe Business Head [illegible]. All of whom very much enjoyed the night of appreciation and fun with their top customers.

There were also similar legs of the Appreciation Night held in Davao last November 24, 2011 and Cebu last December 1, 2011. Without a doubt, memories [illegible] another celebration like it to unfold!
